GEO. A. MCGEEHEE, Sec'y.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Callie Webb, which occurred on Tuesday evening last. May He who doeth all things well, in His mercy alleviate the grief of the family and many friends of the departed.

A beautiful lot of dress goods, embroideries, laces, trimmings, embroidered skirts, parasols, gloves, collars, fichus, and every thing usually kept in a first class house, can be found at the store of D. H. McLean & Co. Call and examine our stock. We are sure we can suit you both in goods and prices.

Charles Bramfield is dead. He has long been a resident of Amite county, and known to most of our people as a quiet old gentleman, generally respected, and was said to be a good farmer. Was a member of the Methodist church in good standing for many years. His death occurred on last Saturday, at his home in the East Fork neighborhood. We hope his future will be a lasting rest in the light above.

A Flagrant Outrage.

A case of diabolism was perpetrated in the neighborhood of New Zion church, seven or eight miles north-east of Liberty, on last Saturday night, at a school examination and concert given at the Parson Hill schoolhouse, where Miss Ida Dixon, colored, had just closed a session of the public school for colored children at that place. The occurrence of which we speak took place while the teacher with her pupils were engaged in singing for the entertainment of a large audience of colored people, and quite a number of white persons who had been invited to be present upon this occasion, and the improvised auditorium was a platform in front of the school room, which had been curtained and decorated for the purpose of the examination, recitations and music, and was crowded with the teachers, pupils and spectators, patrons of the school, musicians and invited guests, when, to the surprise and consternation of the assembled throng, a double-barreled shotgun, heavily charged with shot, was fired from a short range into this assembly, wounding, it is said, fourteen persons, some of them seriously, others slightly. The greatest injury done was to Baldwin Haynes, who will probably lose one of his eyes. In most violations of law some sort of excuse may be offered, but in this case no one pretends that there was any cause whatever to justify or even palliate the enormity of this grave offense against the good order of society and the recognized laws of the land, not to say anything of the fiendish cruelty inflicted upon so many innocent persons engaged in so worthy a cause as the one that called together this assemblage of people. This flagrant outrage upon the rights of the colored race in this neighborhood should not be passed over without an effort on the part of the white people to find out the perpetrators of it, and have them punished to the full extent of the violated law. We have heard of no efforts being made to investigate the affair, but our officers should exhaust their power to bring to punishment these lawless fiends, be they found among the high or the low, the old or the young. For the safety of all, no effort should be spared by our officers in bringing them to answer to the offended laws, made for the protection of both the races.

Mr. F. C. Powell, son of Rev. W. A. Powell, of this county, died in New Orleans, March 10th, of cerebro spinal meningitis. The deceased was a former student of Gillsburg Institute, and at the time of his death held a position as book-keeper. He was a young man of superior intellect and sterling qualities, and his early death is deplored by all who knew him. His remains were interred in the family graveyard near Tangipahoa, La., the funeral services being performed by Rev. T. C. Schilling.

Died:

At her home, near Gillsburg, Miss., March 15, 1891, at 2 o'clock p. m., Mrs. E. JENNIE WALL, wife of B. B. Wall, aged 30 years, 9 months and 9 days.

When young she united with Mt. Vernon Baptist church, and lived a christian, being at the time of her death a member at Gillsburg.

The husband, three children, an aged mother and other relatives are left to mourn for her; but they mourn not without hope.

May they be graciously blessed in this affliction, and take comfort at the thought of meeting in the bright beyond. T. C. SCHILLING, Gillsburg, Miss.

Alliance men will please attend the next meeting of the County Alliance. It is desirable that not only delegates, but as many other members, both male and female, as can will attend our next meeting. Matters of the gravest importance will come up for consideration. As our State organ has gone back on the Order, and is waging fierce war on it, the oppressed masses have no mode of communication, only in our meetings. As you value the existence of the Order, rally at our next meeting, brethren and sisters. W. B. KINABREW, President.

We understand that there is a movement on foot to remove Unity Presbyterian church, in this county, from its present site, and locate it at some other point, to be determined in the future.
